

THIS IS NOT YOUR PARENTS' OFFERING PLATE

A seminar for pastors and laity who are involved in church finances and stewardship.

SEMINAR TOPICS

- How your 2008 budget must be different than the 1970 model followed by most churches today.
- Current congregation giving attitudes and how to bridge differences in generational perspectives.
- How to do away with annual campaigns.
- How capital campaigns succeed and why they fail.

SEMINAR DATES

Tuesday, October 7
 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.
 St. Mark's UMC
 8550 Pioneers, Lincoln, NE

Thursday, October 23
 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.
 First UMC
 2002 4th, Scottsbluff, NE

COST

$35 per church (includes lunch).
 Space is limited. Register today!

HOW TO REGISTER

Beginning August 1, register online at www.umnecb.org or send a completed registration form and check to:

Nebraska United Methodist Conference
 Attn. Rev. Nita Hinds-Park
 P.O. Box 4553
 Lincoln, NE 68504

"No one knows more about local church stewardship than Clif Christopher."

Dr. Bill Easum, noted consultant and author

ABOUT CLIF CHRISTOPHER

Clif has been an ordained minister of the United Methodist Church since 1975 and founded the Horizons Stewardship Company in 1992.

Over the last 10 years, Clif has secured over 220 million dollars for his clients. He has worked in over 19 states and is a frequent speaker at stewardship seminars around the country. His latest book, "It's Not Your Parents' Offering Plate," will be released this fall.

"When I have a question about stewardship, I go to Clif Christopher."

*Adam Hamilton,
 Senior Pastor,
 Church of the Resurrection*