

Swimming the distance!

The RTMJ team invites local congregations to explore becoming intentional prophetic congregations that can help lead our conference!

- This is a certification program based on four components of prayer, education, risk-taking mission, and justice ministry.

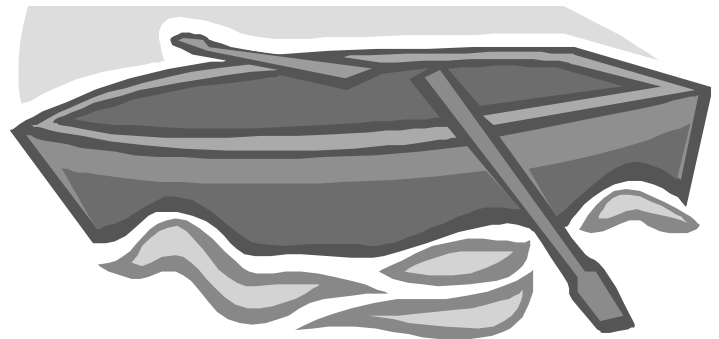

For more information, email rtmj@gmail.com

Members of the Risk-taking Mission and Justice Team

Andrea Paret, Chair, Norfolk FUMC
Charlotte Abram, Tri-Community UMC
Tom Black, Auburn UMC
Roger Gillming, Kimball UMC
Rebecca Hjelle, Kearney First
Pauletta Lehn, Nebraska Wesleyan
Secundino Morales, Gateway District
Fred Richart, Auburn UMC
Susan Schoen, Cozad FUMC
Sandy Sypherd, Columbus FUMC
Tim Shaw, Lincoln FUMC
Carol Windrum, Conference staff

GET OUT

OF THE BOAT!

Ideas for stepping beyond your comfort zone and doing risk-taking mission and justice work!

- ♦ Risk-taking mission challenges people to take risks leading to faithful action.
- ♦ Justice work strives to eliminate systems of oppression within our communities and the world.

Get your feet wet!

Study and live out the United Methodist Social Principles! Organize a group to study and discuss our denominations' positions on a social justice issues.

To order copies of the 2009-2012 Social Principles, go to: umc-gbcs.org

Going overboard!

Does your church  need a little start up money to help you witness social justice in your community? Email rtmj@gmail.com for information on how to apply for seed money.

Dive in!

What gifts do you have for mission? Are you good with a hammer? Perhaps you can sew or teach or paint or do computer work or organize a food pantry or.....

Get out of the boat and participate in a Volunteers in Mission experience right here in Nebraska or half way around the world.

To learn more about VIM, contact Lisa Maupin, Chair of the Conference VIM Committee, at 402/898-9862 or email lmaupin@bigmuddyumc.org

Help young people take a dip!

Let the young adults in your congregation know about the leadership opportunities through the Micah Corps; a ten week summer internship focusing on prayer, study and action in the arena of taking risks and seeking justice in Christ's name!

Check out the activities of the 2009 Micah Corps interns at micah-corps.blogspot.com!

